By David Barton

A Call to Action for Citizens

In this urgent and timely book, David Barton, founder of the acclaimed Christian heritage organization WallBuilders, sounds the alarm about the unprecedented erosion of our freedoms during the COVID-19 pandemic.

With razor-sharp insights and meticulous research, Barton exposes the alarming trend towards government overreach and the deliberate suppression of fundamental rights.

A Blueprint for Resistance

Don't Let Them Lock It Down is more than just a warning; it's a practical playbook for citizens who want to safeguard their liberties.

Through a comprehensive analysis of constitutional principles, historical precedents, and case studies, Barton provides a step-by-step plan for:

- Resisting unlawful lockdowns and closures
- Defending the right to religious freedom
- Challenging the infringement of property rights
- Safeguarding the First Amendment freedoms of speech and assembly
- Protecting parental rights and educational choice

Empowering Citizens to Fight for Their Freedom

Barton argues that the fate of our nation rests in the hands of its citizens. By understanding our rights and responsibilities, we can effectively push back against tyranny.

Don't Let Them Lock It Down provides the tools and strategies necessary to:

- Organize and mobilize local communities
- Engage in peaceful protests and civil disobedience
- Utilize the legal system to challenge unconstitutional policies

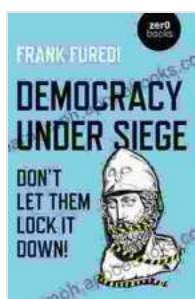

- Educate and inform the public about the importance of freedom

A Clarion Call for Liberty

As the pandemic continues to shape our world, it's more crucial than ever to protect the principles that have made America great.

Don't Let Them Lock It Down is a clarion call for liberty, a guide for citizens determined to preserve their freedoms and secure a better future for themselves and generations to come.
