About the Book

In his powerful and moving memoir, Everything You Never See, Kwame Nyong'o explores the complexities of race, identity, and family.

Nyong'o was born in Mexico to Kenyan parents, and he grew up in both countries. He experienced racism and discrimination in both places, and he struggled to find his place in the world.

In this book, Nyong'o shares his experiences with honesty and vulnerability. He writes about his childhood, his family, his career, and his struggles with race and identity.

Everything You Never See is a powerful and moving memoir that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
