About the Ship

Tenacious Kydd is a replica of a topsail schooner built in 1797. The original Tenacious was a merchant ship that sailed the Atlantic Ocean, carrying goods between the United States and the Caribbean. The replica Tenacious Kydd was built in 1997 and is used for educational programs and day sails.

Tenacious Kydd is a beautiful ship, with a sleek hull and tall masts. The ship is equipped with a variety of sails, including square sails, top sails, and a gaff-rigged mainsail. The ship also has a full complement of cannons, which are used for firing salutes and demonstrations.

The Crew

The crew of Tenacious Kydd is a group of experienced sailors who are passionate about sharing their love of the sea with others. The crew is led by Captain Mike Walsh, who has over 30 years of experience sailing tall ships. The crew also includes several other experienced sailors, including a first mate, a bosun, and a navigator.

The crew of Tenacious Kydd is friendly and knowledgeable, and they are always happy to answer questions about the ship and its history. The crew is also very safety-conscious, and they make sure that all passengers have a safe and enjoyable experience.

Day Sails

Tenacious Kydd offers a variety of day sails from Gloucester, Massachusetts. The sails range in length from two hours to six hours, and they all provide a unique opportunity to experience life on a tall ship.

During a day sail, you will learn about the ship's history, meet the crew, and help to sail the ship. You will also have the opportunity to relax on deck, enjoy the scenery, and take in the fresh sea air.

Day sails are a great way to learn about sailing, experience life on a tall ship, and enjoy the beauty of the Massachusetts coastline.
