In this epic tale, we follow the intertwined lives of three generations of the Sinclair family, oil barons who have made their fortune in the unforgiving oil fields of Texas. As their wealth and power grow, so too do the secrets and betrayals that threaten to tear their family apart.

At the heart of the story is the enigmatic Lilah Sinclair, a woman torn between her love for two very different men. Jake is a self-made millionaire who embodies the rugged individualism of Texas, while Wickham is a sophisticated New Yorker who offers a world of luxury and adventure.

As Lilah's choices shape the destiny of the Sinclair family, we witness the rise and fall of fortunes, the complexities of love and marriage, and the enduring bonds of family.

Fern Michaels brings her signature blend of romance, suspense, and historical accuracy to this unforgettable saga. With its richly drawn characters, intricate plotlines, and vivid descriptions of the Texas landscape, Texas Rich is a novel that will stay with you long after you finish it.
